Dear Customer,

Welcome to our Product Brochure - your handy guide to our comprehensive range of packaging products, machinery and equipment.

Kilby Packaging has been a family-run manufacturing firm for more than 75 years, spanning three generations. We've always held to our family values as we've grown as a business - to give our clients the highest level of quality, service and integrity.

As you'd expect, this includes a commitment to environmental awareness, and you can read more about this vital issue on page 4.

We pride ourselves on developing a deep understanding and a long-term relationship with each of our customers, with in-house manufacture of bespoke products, and prompt deliveries by our fleet from our extensive stocks.

We invest in modern technology such as the latest digital printers for lower energy use and small, cost-effective orders of customised packaging, to cater for all sizes of companies.

Using our website to choose and order your packaging products is simple, but we're always delighted to discuss and advise you on the best solutions for your specific needs - call us any time!

ENVIRONMENTAL FOCUS

John Kilby, grandfather to the current directors, founded the company to reuse corrugated boxes after WW2 - and we've stayed focused on encouraging and providing greener alternatives, using renewable and sustainable sources, as well as recycled materials.

We also take our environmental responsibilities seriously, complying with all current environmental legislation and constantly striving to improve our working practices.

Sustainability as a goal

There's been a surge in demand for sustainable packaging derived from sustainably managed forests, including self-adhesive paper packaging tape, paper mailing bags and other paper products. Not least because updating your packaging can reduce the use of void fill, lowering shipping costs and CO2 emissions.

We provide corrugated and paper products which are FSC® certified, the Forest Stewardship Council® standard for ensuring that forestry is practiced in an environmentally responsible and socially beneficial way.

Increased recycled content

We've converted many of our plastic packaging items - including stretch wrap, strapping, bubble and polythene mailers - to those which contain at least 30% recycled content.

Helping our customers on their eco journey

We're committed to helping customers minimize excess packaging and use lightweight materials which do not compromise on performance. You'll see these helpful environmental symbols when you examine our products online:

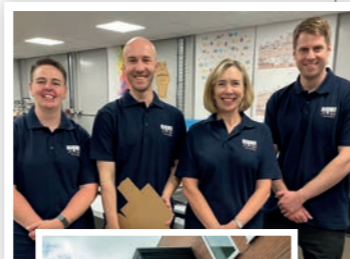

Look for our FSC accredited products
FSC C169111

Personal Service

Our customers each have a friendly and professional Account Manager who gets to know you and your company, and advises you on how you can improve efficiency, reduce waste and swap to more eco-friendly and cost-effective practical solutions tailored to you.

We're proud of our excellent track record of providing high quality products and services at competitive prices to companies, developing trust and offering flexibility and reliability. We believe in developing long-term relationships with all our clients, large and small.

You're also welcome to visit our design department and display room in Birmingham, who are ready to work with you to develop a prototype. Alternatively, get in touch for an initial chat on 01564 823 176.

SUSTAINABLE PRODUCTS

We offer you a wide range of paper-based packaging that minimises the effect on the environment. Our stock cases have more than 80% recycled content and can easily be recycled, again and again. Paper mailing bags make an intelligent alternative to polythene and look smart too. Click on the QR code to read more about environmental labelling, information and popular products.
